
Quick and easy uses for left over baked chicken

Hi All,

Just wanted to share this quick trick when you have left over baked or BBQ chicken and you do not know what to do with it. I have found when I am in this predicament I simply use the left over meat and throw it in soup! It adds so much added flavour. I also de-bone the meat and use the pieces in bora, cabbage, fried rice and chow-mein..

It is a quick and easy time saver! Bon Apetite!!
