

Wiri Wiri Pepper

Contributed by Administrator
Friday, 02 April 2010
Last Updated Friday, 16 April 2010

Pronounced "wee-ree wee-ree", this pepper variety is very popular in Guyana. The peppers grow upright, and turn from green, to orange and then to red when it is mature.

Pronounced "wee-ree wee-ree", this pepper variety is very popular in Guyana. The peppers grow upright, and turn from green, to orange and then to red when it is mature.

This hot little pepper, also known as cherry peppers, is a favourite to add when preparing dishes or enjoyed as a pepper sauce. In Guyana, hot pepper sauce is enjoyed on just about every kind of savoury food from scrambled eggs to fried rice.